MARIANNE
FINE WINES AND GUEST APARTMENTS

Half day: R700

We will be welcoming you at the farm just before dawn as harvest start when the sun is barely.

Despite the early morning, we guarantee you it's a lot of fun.

Being entirely part of the Marianne harvest team, and cutting the cluster row by row under guidance of our beloved viticulturist Ernest is an unforgettable experience.

Once the job is done, a well-deserved breakfast will be waiting for you at the Tasting Room.

The work then continues in the cellar where you will be selecting the healthiest grapes that will end up in our fermentation tanks. Finally, we will then all sit down in a communal table to enjoy a well-deserved South African braai.
